ALAS'S BURDEN UPON MAYOR

Because Scarlet Women Were Virtually Licensed He Quits His Job.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

HOQUIAM (Wash.) March 30.—

—Because the City Council insists upon permitting women of the under world to carry on their business under a recognized monthly fine system, Mayor P. J. Mourant has resigned his office to take effect May 1. Mayor Mourant has fought against the fine system for ten months. The matter will be made an issue at the next election.

for Mrs. Henry, the petite and attractive wife of his clerk, the flight of Mrs. Henry with her children from Seattle to San Francisco in November, 1909, followed by the resignation of Kelley from the bank and his desertion to his family and the subsequent proof that Mrs. Henry and Kelley had met in the California metropolis, formed a chain of circumstances that caused intense interest.

Mrs. Henry sat calm and collected during the granting of the decree and showed no evidence of emotion. When the court reached that portion disposing of the children she turned and spoke a few words to her counsel, but showed no emotion.

TROUBLES COME IN BUNCHES.

Former Chief of Police of Seattle Arrested for Third Time Upon Charge of Soliciting Bribe.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

SEATTLE (Wash.) March 30.—

Former Chief of Police Charles W. Wapenstein was arrested today on an indictment returned by the special grand jury, charging him with soliciting and receiving a bribe of $1000 from Gideon Tupper and Clarence B. Gensia on July 15, 1910, for not molesting two notorious establishments of the old vice district. Wapenstein was released on $15,000 bond.

The bribery indictment, upon which Wapenstein was arrested, is the third returned against him by the grand jury called to investigate alleged graft conditions under the last city administration.

Wapenstein is now at liberty under total bonds of $5,000.

H. G. Grant, chief deputy under Caughy, will be succeeded by A. S. Hammage of Santa Clara county.

DIVORCE JUDGE IS PERPLEXED.

Strange Court Procedure Bobs Up in Reno and Jurist Becomes Suspicious of Modern Method of Action.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

RENO (Nev.) March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Minnie Miller today withdrew her suit for divorce against Clarence Miller of New Orleans, with whom she had lived as wife less than one year. A few hours later, E. S. Gilbert, a wealthy Michigan man, whom Miller named in his cross suit, appeared before the same court and asked permission to adopt Mrs. Miller's son as a former marriage.

Judge Averill told Gilbert to get an attorney, and while Mrs. Miller and the boy waited in the courtroom Gilbert hurried after Attorney Painter, to whom Judge Averill said:

"I find these papers have not been recorded and I shall not hear the case until the proper action is had."

Then Painter explained that he had drawn the papers and given them to Gilbert who returned to the judge's signature was necessary. Gilbert, twice a widower—one by death and once by divorce—and Miller have occupied the same house here for a year, he introducing her alternately as housekeeper and wife.

STUDENTS DECLARED A STRIKE WHERE GIRLS WERE HAZED BY BOYS

Young Men of the Washington State College Entered the Sleeping Apartments of the Young Ladies at Night and Handled Them So Roughly That Their Male Relatives Have Sworn Vengeance.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PULLMAN (Wash.) March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One girl so badly shocked that she had to leave school and return home; another so badly bruised about the head that she is confined to her bed; several others prostrated; a student's strike declared and in force; a faculty inquiry in progress and male relatives of several injured girls threatening personal violence to the guilty are pieces of the chaotic state of affairs in Washington State College as the result of a hazing prank by several boys who early Tuesday morning entered the girls' dormitory and handled several girls roughly.

So far names of suspects have not leaked out.

Committee of the faculty and the student body were in session throughout the day, examining witnesses. It

SLOPE EXPECTS BUMPER CROPS.

Cherries, Pears, Peaches and Plums in Fine Shape.

Damage in Georgia Will Aid Prices in California.

Thrips Cause Some Worry in the Suisun District.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The only thorn of serious import in the side of California fruit growers at present is the pear thrips, and they are restricted to a limited area. Otherwise all is promising. The fruit people say the crop is very satisfactory.

There is still a chance for a killing frost, but this chance is extremely remote.

The Georgia and the Tennessee peach crops are practically ruined this year. A heavy frost about the middle of this month visited the southern States and did great damage. Hardly 10 per cent of the crop is left.

Although California growers are not celebrating because the growers of a sister State are to suffer, the Georgia failure will nevertheless mean more money in the California pocket. With the southern crop out of the way, the California product will have the market to itself.

Regarding California fruit conditions, W. D. Bennett, sales manager of the California Fruit Exchange, has the following to say:

"The California crop, according to advices received at this office, will be two weeks later than it was last year. At the present time all is favorable, however, for a good crop of cherries, peaches, pears and plums. Down the river and about Suisun the pear and cherry growers are troubled with thrips, but how much damage these will do is not yet certain. So far as I have learned the thrips are not both-ering most of the orchards."

Charles F. Howland of the Earl Fruit Company says: "Though the danger of frost is not entirely past, yet weather conditions are not threatening. The peach crop promises to be normal. A little rain just now might help a little by softening up the surface and making plowing easier. Most of the growers have their work well advanced."

Hark, Hark, the Lark.

JOAQUIN MILLER IS RECOVERING.

POET OF SIERRAS REUNITED WITH WIFE AND DAUGHTER.

Ten years ago, Mrs. Miller, second wife of the poet, left for the East with her daughter, Juanita. She made her home in New York and superintended the musical education of the child. In the meantime the poet lived alone in the "Heights." Then Miller fell ill. For a time hope was abandoned. His brother arrived from Oregon and his daughter hurried back from New York. His recovery dated from the arrival of his daughter. After he had improved sufficiently to warrant, Miss Miller left her father and returned to the East to close her studio and arrange to make her permanent home with her father.

She returned during the early part of the week with her mother, and a reunion resulted.

AFTER OIL AND GAS IN NORTH.

Prospecting on Elaborate Scale About to Be Undertaken on the Olympic Peninsula in Washington.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TACOMA (Wash.) March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prospecting for coal and gas on the Olympic Peninsula is about to be undertaken on an elaborate scale, with every prospect of success. Experts declare the famous Vancouver Island vein, basis for the enormous Dunsinuir fortune, extends under the Straits of Fuca and beneath the peninsula, though probably at a great depth.

In the Leland Valley, between the Olympic mountains and the Pacific Ocean, a leading farmer tapped a well abandoned by a prospecting party which ran out of funds, and has ever since both illuminated and heated his one farmhouse with the natural gas developed. The discovery of either gas or coal will work marvels in developing the western side of Jefferson county.

In a report made public today by W. E. Dement, an Astoria oil expert says: "The probabilities are that the whole coast of Washington is underlain by oil and gas. Indications supporting this theory are found all the way from the Columbia River to the Straits of Fuca. California black oil stains the surface soil and croppings are easily noticed, but Washington's light crude oil makes scarcely any stain and croppings are detected with difficulty."

SAN JOSE MAN UNDER ARREST.

Charged With Misappropriating Rents Collected As Agent for Siskiyou County Brother-in-Law.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN JOSE, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] W. M. Smith, for sixteen years a realty dealer in this city, was arrested today on two charges, one for misappropriation of $275.50 and one of felony embezzlement of $240. The complaining witness is L. R. Terwilliger of Siskiyou county, a cousin of Smith's wife. He alleges that Smith has appropriated to his own use money collected as agent for Terwilliger from rents in San Jose.

Smith is well-known in business circles. He was arraigned after closing hours tonight and the details of the affair were guarded closely by all concerned. Rumors that other charges are to be made are out, but cannot be traced to any reliable source.

Some one interested in the case telephoned all the places where there are bulletin boards in an effort to get the arrest made public. He would not give his name.

In default of bail, Smith is confined in the County Jail.

on Easiest Way Out.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
EVERETT (Wash.) March 30.—Ole N. Weeden, a rancher of South Prairie, eight miles northeast of Darrington, armed himself with a rifle early today, went to the homes of William Rinker, John Rinker and Jack Smyre and shot and killed each of the men. Smyre and the Rinkers owned all of South Prairie, a little flat area in the mountains.

Weeden then returned to his home, where he was found by a Sheriff's posse.

When he saw that he was about to be captured, Weeden shot himself. It is reported that he is fatally injured.

No cause for Weeden's act is known. It is believed that he suddenly became insane and went on his murderous expedition.

Smyre was the first man to be shot by Weeden, who came upon him early this morning, while he was at work in the barn.

According to information received here, Weeden and Smyre engaged in a quarrel, after which Weeden shot Smyre, killed him instantly. He then turned to the home of William Rinker, whom he killed by firing through a window. John Rinker was also killed in his own house.

As soon as the ranchers on the prairie learned of the murders, a posse was started in pursuit of Weeden, who fled to the woods and made his way to his ranch.

Late today the posse surrounded the house and a woman who lived nearby was sent to demand Weeden's surrender. The fugitive refused to give himself up, and when the woman returned with the posse, the men outside heard a shot. When they broke down the door they found Weeden lying on the floor suffering from a serious wound. His weapon was pointed toward the door and the woman who was about to enter, Deputy Sheriff Gononov fired at Weeden, wounding him a second time. Reports received here tonight are that Weeden's injuries will prove fatal.

Weeden is a bachelor 40 years of age.

New York Central Passengers See a Man in the Street Shoot a Woman and Then, Taking Deliberate Aim, Send a Bullet Into His Own Brain.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Passengers arriving early this evening by a New York Central train had a horrifying introduction to a crime when the sudden application of the emergency brakes brought the train to a stop almost opposite the double tragedy which was being enacted in Park avenue. A well-dressed man was seen to draw a revolver from his pocket, shoot a woman, and turn the weapon on himself.

The engineer, first to see the couple, threw on his brakes and shouted to the man:

"Hold on, don't shoot her!"

The assassin paid no heed to the shouted warning of his deed, but took deliberate aim at the woman and fired. She placed the weapon at his own temple, fired, and sank to the street by the woman's side.

Passengers had looked on, powerless to interfere, and as soon as the engineer saw that his warning was not heeded, he pulled his train into the station.

The man was dead when the police arrived and the woman has little chance of recovery.

A card in the man's pocket bore the name of Jacob Shonts. There was no clue tonight to the woman's identity.

The man was further identified as the son of Rudolph Stumpmuck, a millionaire lumberman of Austria, who died several years ago, leaving the son, Jacob, $100,000. According to a fellow member in the carpenter's union, who had known the man since childhood, Jacob came to America, changed his name to Shonts, and disappeared his fortune.

NEW ORLEANS (La.) March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because a homestead claim on the property was filed by her father while her mother was living, Miss Ella Watkins, aged 14, today successfully established her right to half of the property of her father, which was valued at $500,000.

The first will on the track has already yielded $15,000,000. The Napoleonic civil code in vogue in Louisiana makes property acquired during marriage community property. It is impossible to deprive a son, or a daughter, of his or her share even by will. So through the Miss Watkins case what he thought to be a clear title it was faulty and the girl becomes wealthy in her own right. The suit settled today was filed by her tutor.

VICTORIA (B. C.) March 30.—Pitiful details regarding the famine in Central China were received by the Steamer Awa Maru, several cases being reported where starving people had resorted to cannibalism.

Mrs. J. B. Cochran, in a letter sent to Japanese newspapers, tells of how thousands starved for food at the distributions, and in a subsequent letter from Puchon, in which she describes it as "The city of dreadful nights." She says:

"Huddled in the Temple, helpless and starving, are hundreds of country people who have wandered in after seeing their families die at home. A few nights ago a family gave up hope. The father strangled the three children and he and the mother hanged themselves. They die in this temple and in other places in the city every night. The emaciated bodies are cast out by the thousands in the morning. Hundreds of thousands are starving and dying in this district."

LONDON, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Once again the mysterious American known as "Brown of Brightlinges" has obtained undesired publicity. From the case heard in the King's Bench today it appears that his full name is M. Bayard Brown, and he gives his address as Nassau street, New York. Ever since the summer of 1889 Mr. Brown has lived a yachtsman's life on board his yacht, the "Brightlinges," which he has named after the village of Brightlinges, in the county of Sussex, England. The yacht is a unique vessel, and is the only one of its kind in the world. It is a small, fast, and comfortable vessel, and is the only one of its kind in the world. It is a small, fast, and comfortable vessel, and is the only one of its kind in the world.

Moored fore and aft within a couple of hundred yards of the Essex shore, Mr. Brown surveyed England from a detached point of view, and paid no taxes. His yacht has a crew of eighteen. Her pressure gauge shows steam always up. At turns of the land her engines have always been ready to be set going. But she has never left her anchorage. Therefore the income tax assessors, contending that a habitation 200 yards from Brightlinges is in England, assessed Mr. Brown for the income tax.

Senate Investigating Committee the Man Who in Confidence Told Him of a Slush Fund of One Hundred Thousand Dollars to Send Lorimer to Senate.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I am ready for the consequences, whatever they may be, and I have not weakened one iota in my position," said H. H. Kohlsaat, editor and publisher of the Record-Herald, when he appeared in his office today and was interrogated concerning the attempt of a legislative committee in Springfield to bring from him the name of the man who gave him confidential information relative to the raising of a $100,000 "slush" fund to elect William Lorimer United States Senator.

There was nothing about Kohlsaat's demeanor to indicate fear of the threat of a possible jail sentence if he persisted in refusing to answer the questions of the committee.

"The talk of a jail sentence does not frighten me," said Kohlsaat. "I have the consciousness of knowing I have done right and there is absolutely no way in the world by which I could be prevailed on to betray a confidence. I told them in Springfield that if they wished to make a martyr of me it was their own affair."

"The question is a broad one and I don't recall where a similar case has come up. It is simply the question whether or not an honorable man may be punished for refusing to betray confidence that he has given his word to respect. It is the question whether or not a man's promise is to be considered sacred. I would say I was not concerned if I attempted to save myself at the injury or expense of some one else. I have no fear in the matter."

Kohlsaat refused to deny or affirm that certain men whose names have been mentioned furnished him with confidential information. He declared that if he denied that it was one man he would be called on to deny that it was another.

No action will be taken by the Legislature relative to the refusal of Kohlsaat to answer the questions that were put to him, until next Thursday, when the committee will report to the Senate and ask for instructions. It is believed that the committee are the only theories left to the public. When other members of the committee were asked to place in an embarrassing position and would not want to do anything that might be construed as weakness.

One of the members of the investigating committee declared that he believed the Senate would not take any step to punish Kohlsaat. When other members of the committee were asked to place in an embarrassing position and would not want to do anything that might be construed as weakness.

"I have the consciousness of knowing I have done right and there is absolutely no way in the world by which I could be prevailed on to betray a confidence. It is the question whether or not a man's promise is to be considered sacred. I would say I was not concerned if I attempted to save myself at the injury or expense of some one else. I have no fear in the matter."

Kohlsaat refused to deny or affirm that certain men whose names have been mentioned furnished him with confidential information. He declared that if he denied that it was one man he would be called on to deny that it was another.

No action will be taken by the Legislature relative to the refusal of Kohlsaat to answer the questions that were put to him, until next Thursday, when the committee will report to the Senate and ask for instructions. It is believed that the committee are the only theories left to the public. When other members of the committee were asked to place in an embarrassing position and would not want to do anything that might be construed as weakness.

"The talk of a jail sentence does not frighten me," said Kohlsaat. "I have the consciousness of knowing I have done right and there is absolutely no way in the world by which I could be prevailed on to betray a confidence. I told them in Springfield that if they wished to make a martyr of me it was their own affair."

"The question is a broad one and I don't recall where a similar case has come up. It is simply the question whether or not an honorable man may be punished for refusing to betray confidence that he has given his word to respect. It is the question whether or not a man's promise is to be considered sacred. I would say I was not concerned if I attempted to save myself at the injury or expense of some one else. I have no fear in the matter."

VICTORIA (B. C.) March 30.—Pitiful details regarding the famine in Central China were received by the Steamer Awa Maru, several cases being reported where starving people had resorted to cannibalism.

Mrs. J. B. Cochran, in a letter sent to Japanese newspapers, tells of how thousands starved for food at the distributions, and in a subsequent letter from Puchon, in which she describes it as "The city of dreadful nights." She says:

"Huddled in the Temple, helpless and starving, are hundreds of country people who have wandered in after seeing their families die at home. A few nights ago a family gave up hope. The father strangled the three children and he and the mother hanged themselves. They die in this temple and in other places in the city every night. The emaciated bodies are cast out by the thousands in the morning. Hundreds of thousands are starving and dying in this district."

LONDON, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Once again the mysterious American known as "Brown of Brightlinges" has obtained undesired publicity. From the case heard in the King's Bench today it appears that his full name is M. Bayard Brown, and he gives his address as Nassau street, New York. Ever since the summer of 1889 Mr. Brown has lived a yachtsman's life on board his yacht, the "Brightlinges," which he has named after the village of Brightlinges, in the county of Sussex, England. The yacht is a unique vessel, and is the only one of its kind in the world. It is a small, fast, and comfortable vessel, and is the only one of its kind in the world.

Moored fore and aft within a couple of hundred yards of the Essex shore, Mr. Brown surveyed England from a detached point of view, and paid no taxes. His yacht has a crew of eighteen. Her pressure gauge shows steam always up. At turns of the land her engines have always been ready to be set going. But she has never left her anchorage. Therefore the income tax assessors, contending that a habitation 200 yards from Brightlinges is in England, assessed Mr. Brown for the income tax.

CHICAGO, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "I am ready for the consequences, whatever they may be, and I have not weakened one iota in my position," said H. H. Kohlsaat, editor and publisher of the Record-Herald, when he appeared in his office today and was interrogated concerning the attempt of a legislative committee in Springfield to bring from him the name of the man who gave him confidential information relative to the raising of a $100,000 "slush" fund to elect William Lorimer United States Senator.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

AIRHOLES MAKE IT HAZARDOUS.

Bird Men Look at Small Crowd Morosely.

Each Flying Man Made Three Ascensions.

Public Schools Adjourn, That Children May Attend.

PASADENA, March 31.—The second day of the Pasadena aviation meet was not filled with the thrills which were expected by the large audience, most of which was outside the fence. The paid admissions were about the same as on Wednesday, but there were more people inside, because the public schools let out early in order to give the school children, who were admitted free, a chance to see the exhibition. Willard and Ely, who received the gate receipts after all expenses were paid, became morose when they saw the small number of paid admissions and gave just as little show as possible to keep their contract. They complained that the air was full of holes and not suitable for making good exhibition flights.

Each aviator made three ascensions. Willard simply circled the park a few times and landed without any aerial gymnastics whatever. In his second flight, Ely made a trip to Busch's garden. When he circled over the garden, he was at an altitude of 1,000 feet and was easily seen by the Busch family, who were out in the park waiting to see the famous man. Mr. Busch stated that it was the first time he had seen an airplane and was greatly pleased with the case with which Ely manipulated his airship. In landing, Ely made a spectacular glide from an altitude of nearly 2,000 feet, alighting in the middle of the polo field in plain view of the crowd.

In his last flight, Ely sailed over the Hotel Maryland and dropped a small flag in the open court adjoining the hotel. In making his turn, he flew over the business district of the city. He made another beautiful glide in alighting.

LOST ITS CHARM.

The Throop field, adjoining the Tournament Park, was again filled with people, buggies and automobiles. The trees were well filled with small boys and every house in the neighborhood was covered with people anxious to get a glimpse of the aviators. Even at that there were not as many people out as was expected and it was the consensus of opinion that aviation in Southern California, has lost its charm and the people take but little interest in it.

As soon as Ely and Willard completed their last flights their aeroplanes were pushed into the big tent hangar and a force of "knock them down" started to "knock them down" ready for shipment. Within two hours everything was ready to be carted to the railroad. Both aviators were shipped to Salt Lake City where Willard and Ely will make exhibition flights next week.

Ely has been expecting to receive orders from the army to go to San Antonio to make demonstration but, so far, has received none.

ALL POLITICS NOW.

"Who will be the next Mayor?" is the common bawling salutation on the streets now-a-days. Last night Metcalf, J. H. Merriman and several other speakers addressed an enthusiastic audience at the corner of East Colorado street and Chestnut street, where they repeated the party pledges, heretofore made, pledging support of the city's lighting plant, more lights for the city, and a new city hall.

Up in North Pasadena an entirely different tale was told. Entirely different medicine was prescribed, doses were doubled, but the results were guaranteed to be the same. It was the Thum speakers who were making the noise and they, too, declared that Thum will forever maintain the city's lighting plant, secure municipal water, buy the present plants at a reasonable price, never, never consolidate with Los Angeles, "the right, talk right, act right, vote right, vote for Thum," said one of the speaker.

The first meeting was at the corner of North Fair Oaks avenue and Washington street, and the second meeting was held in the "dry tract" before a full representation of the Citizens' League.

Thomas and Verti, Los Angeles engineers, have made plans for the proposed Arroyo Seco bridge which have been hung on the walls in the City Hall lobby for the inspection of the public.

John Ellsworth Dayhoff, a native of Illinois, died last night at his home, No. 3834 North Hollywood avenue, aged 67 years. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and Woodmen of the World. The funeral will be held Sunday.

Helen M. Stanley, who came to Pasadena from Hartford, Ct., thirty years ago, with her husband, W. Stanley, died last night at her home, No. 226 Washington street, which before public carriage driver, was arrested yesterday for standing his "tourist wagon" on Colorado street, in violation of the traffic ordinance. Anderson demanded a jury trial and says he will test the constitutionality of the ordinance.

SOCIETY DOINGS.

Miss Jessie Sabin was hostess, yesterday afternoon, at a smart bridge and "200" party at her home, No. 49 South Grand avenue, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Andrews. Sixteen guests were present.

Mrs. R. Tillinghast, wife of the new pastor of the First Universalist Church, was formally introduced to the ladies of the church, yesterday afternoon, at a tea given in her honor at the church by the Woman's League.

A smart luncheon, of yesterday, was given by Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt in honor of Miss Maud Daggett, who has recently returned from Paris. The guests included a number of the intimate friends of the Daggetts.

Mrs. DeWitt C. LaFevre was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon, at a luncheon given at the Rose Tree House in honor of Mrs. J. B. Moschetti, who is the house guest of Mrs. A. E. Ford.

The last of the Coleman chamber concerts was given, yesterday afternoon, at Clune's Pasadena Theater before a large and appreciative audience. The music given by the orchestra included a number of piano selections by Miss Alice Coleman, several numbers by the Brahms String Quartette and solos by Arthur Alexander and Edgar Stillman.

An unusually attractive appointed bridge party was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Daniel Cray at John avenue, the guests being for the most part women who formerly lived in St. Paul, but are residing here and spending the winter in Pasadena.

WATER QUESTION IS SOLVED.

Plentiful Flow Is Found at a Depth of Three Hundred and Forty Feet. COVINA, March 31.—The discovery of a plentiful flow of water at a depth of 240 feet on the ranch owned by H. M. Houser, has solved a question for the territory lying southeast of Covina that has been in dispute for many years. An eighteen-inch well has been sunk in the basin lands on Mr. Houser's ranch of 140 acres, after nearly three months of steady drilling. It had been said in the past that water did not lie in the strata in this section, but the discovery of the well forced its way through several layers of tough shale, finally struck a flow that is producing the water in quantities sufficient to irrigate the lands in that territory under a system of irrigation. Mr. Houser will begin work on the system of irrigation, which is enough to bring all the lands in that territory under a system of irrigation. TO SELL SCHOOL BUILDING.

Inglewood Citizens Decide to Sell Old Structure Instead of Converting It Into a City Hall. INGLEWOOD, March 31.—At the mass meeting held Tuesday evening to decide as to the disposition of the old brick grammar school building, it was decided to instruct the school board to sell the building at auction.

Many of the citizens were in favor of removing the building and converting it into a City Hall, but it was finally decided the building was not worth the expense. It will be sold and torn down as soon as the new building is opened for use.

NEWS BRIEFS.

SOCIAL FLYER COMES TO GRIEF.

His Wife Traces Him From Butte, Montana.

Learns He Is Engaged to Another Girl.

Little Town Stirred by Personality of Man.

ASUSA, March 31.—Asusa has not yet recovered from the shock which it received this week when an attractive young woman and a little girl about 3 years of age stepped from the trolley car and asked a man standing near the station for "a young man named Garwood."

"I am his wife," she said, "and this is his child."

She was told that there was a man named Garwood in the office of the Pomotrope, but that he was an unmarried man, and a great favorite among the girls.

Further questioning revealed the fact that her husband had left her twenty months ago, when their child was only seven months old. She had never ceased her search for him, but had only just succeeded in finding him.

The young woman and her baby were on their way to the office of the newspaper, when, turning a corner, they came face to face with the husband and father. The woman's eyes were fixed on the man, and she threw her arms about her husband, apparently forgetting all his long neglect, and she kissed both her and the baby heartily.

Garwood, who had been spending the winter in Butte, Mont., to keep him from fooling some other girl."

Arrived in Los Angeles, Garwood went to the office of L. E. Shook, editor of the Pomotrope, and asked for his wages, saying he was going to leave. Questions from his chief brought out the fact of the arrival of his wife.

He declared that he had not known of his wife's return until she had written him, and that he had been in Butte, Mont., for the last two months.

Garwood came to Asusa about a year ago, having been for a short time connected with a newspaper in Covina.

WHITE RIBBON WORKERS ACTIVE.

WILL OPPOSE BROADENING OF THE LIQUOR ZONE.

Dan Turner, One Hundred Years Old, Appears on the Street in His Hat He Bought Before the Civil War—Vehicle Booster Is Given a Commission.

SANTA MONICA, March 31.—The application of John Schmidt for a retail and restaurant liquor license may result in again bringing the batteries of the temperance element into operation.

Schmidt has opened a place on Pier avenue and his application for a license has gone before the Police Commission and that body has advertised for protestants to register their kicks.

It is expected the protesting of another license will be resisted, as the white ribbon workers have never failed to oppose the extension of the liquor zone in any direction.

DOCTORS WORK TO SAVE COUPLE.

PTOMAINES POISONING THREATENS THE LIVES OF PAIR.

Parook of Stewed Veal and the Deadly Illness Is Attributed to Poison From the Dish—Ship Plans Will Rush Work on Big Dry Docks.

LONG BEACH, March 31.—Doctors have all morning been working heroically with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kirkendall, living on West Fifth street, who are suffering with ptomaine poisoning. They were taken ill about the same time this morning and for a time their lives were in the balance.

This evening Mr. Kirkendall is reported out of danger, but his wife is still critically ill. The only cause for the illness is some stewed veal which they had for supper last night.

Mr. Kirkendall is just recovering from a fall out of bed some weeks ago, in which he nearly cut an ear off.

WORK ON DOCK.

With the launching of the steamer Navajo the Craig ship plant will now proceed to finish the big floating drydock which is to be the largest south of San Francisco. Five pontoons have been finished, leaving four to be built, besides the walls to hold up ships put on the pontoons for repairs.

While Jose Cortez was working at the Edison power plant this morning, he was knocked down by a truck which ran over him, spraining his ankle and forcing a nail into his leg below the knee.

Leonard Fabian of Bakersfield, arrested for uttering a worthless check, was arraigned before Justice Brayton this morning, but his friends had been busy and squared the check, and by agreement the young man was released.

The police of San Diego have notified the local department that Annie Hegard, who disappeared from a rooming house here several weeks ago, leaving her trunk and clothing, is probably in this city. A woman answering her description and registering as Annie Richmond, one of her names, was located at a hotel, but had left in company with a young man.

A Wisconsin society of Long Beach was formed last night at a meeting of fifty former residents of the State. Sam Muffey was made chairman and Mrs. A. J. Finch secretary. At another meeting, to be held next week, plans will be made for the first annual picnic.

Otto Blak was to have been married today, but was not. Instead, he celebrated last night and was before Judge Hart this morning for drunkenness. As he has his fourth appearance lately, the judge thought sixty days in jail would straighten him out and make him better able to become a benefactor.

If the bride, Miss Marie Grinn, will still have him.

John Paul Cherry, employed as a harbor guard at the Craig plant by a union, and a man with a wife and four children, went to jail this morning in default of $1000 bail to await the arrival of an officer from New Orleans with a warrant for felony embezzlement.

Hiram Harris, a veteran of the Civil War, went to jail today pending a hearing on a charge of non-support preferred by his wife, whom he wed but two short months ago. After a hearing, Harris was committed to jail to await the arrival of an officer from New Orleans with a warrant for felony embezzlement.

ATZUSA, March 31.—At the regular meeting of the City Trustees this week E. R. Jeffrey, who has just moved to Los Angeles, resigned, and A. Katz was elected to fill the unexpired term of one year.

The regular monthly social meeting of the Atzusa Women's Club was held yesterday with Mrs. C. C. Casey on San Gabriel avenue. The club decided to plant and care for a flower-bed in the new city park. The program was in charge of Mrs. George R. Stewart and Mrs. Belle Harris.

Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Will Bouldin sang two of his songs; Miss Huiz of Covina sang the Flower Song from "Faust," and Mrs. Harris the Jewel Song; several choruses from the opera were sung by Mesdames Harris, Fredericks and Bouldin, and the Misses Elmer, Hughes, Dorney and Crane. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. Stewart and Miss Annie Clark.

Hotel del Coronado has room now.

"OH, THAT MY SON should wish to marry an actress!" shrieked the proud patrician mother.

"Now, ma; don't take on so," bemoaned the unfeeling father, "she isn't really an actress; she only thinks she is."

NEWS BRIEVITIES.

The Board of Supervisors has let the contract for the building of the Saticoy bridge over the Santa Clara River and the building of the bridge over Piru Creek at Piru. The Saticoy bridge will be built by the Nerry-Elwell Company of Oakland at a cost of $53,000, while the latter bridge will be built by the Missouri Valley Bridge and Iron Company of Denver at a cost of $19,210.
The bonds for the building of these bridges were voted several months
since, the full amount voted being $725,- 000. The bond issue called for the building of over fifty culverts and bridges in all sections of the county.
The Ojai branch railroad of the Southern Pacific, which runs from this city to the regular troops and is accompanied by a train, is again in commission and the first train came through today from Nordhoff. The return train had two engines attached and took up a lot of accumulated freight. The cars will be returned filled with oranges, of which there were some 200 carloads caught in the recent flood blockade which has been out of commission a month.

SET TO FRUIT.

RECORD-BREAKING NUMBER OF ORCHARDS BEING PLANTED.
Horticultural Commissioner Is Directing Rigid Inspection to Prevent the Access of Any Tree Troubles—Two Indians, Graduates
of Federal Schools, to Wed.

RIVERSIDE, March 30.—County
Horticultural Commissioner Culliff,
who has just returned from a visit to the eastern parts of the county, reports that there are record-breaking quantities of nursery stock now being received and planted in a number of the fertile valley districts.
The receipts and plantings are especially heavy in the Beaumont and Banning districts. Apples and cherries are the principal kinds of trees being set out at Beaumont, while at Banning there are large tracts being set to almonds, apricots and peaches.
At Hemet and San Jacinto, walnuts, apricots and peaches are being received and set out in unusually large quantities. All of the stock which is shipped into the county, is being inspected by the deputies of the commissioner before it is taken away from the station. In addition to this line of work, the commissioner and his deputies are inspecting the nursery stock of citrus trees which are being sent from this county to Arizona and to Tulare county.

In the Riverside district there will be unusually large plantings of citrus trees. This is especially true of the West Riverside sections, where there are now being prepared for setting to lemons and oranges, and also valencia oranges more than 1000 acres of land.

INDIANS WED.

A marriage license was issued to two young Indians this morning and they were married in the Courthouse by Judge George A. French, shortly afterwards.

Hollahan. The bride is a native of California and is a graduate from the Sherman Institute, where he learned the trade of a baker. The bride is a

Arlington, having taken the course in domestic science. Just after the marriage ceremony the couple departed for the Salt Lake to Landers, Wyo., where they will make their home. A license to wed was also issued today to William A. McCarthy, a native of Canada, aged 47, resident of Riverside, and Elizabeth H. Hollahan, native of Pennsylvania, aged 40, and a resident of Los Angeles.

MINSTREL SHOW.

Under the direction of Prof. Geoffrey F. Morgan of the Longfellow school, the boys of the Y.M.C.A. will give their Booster Minstrel performance tomorrow and Saturday evening in the Woman's Clubhouse. This is the eighth year for Prof. Morgan to appear in minstrelsy, having directed the show given by Occidental College
and later acting in the same capacity for Stanford University. He has had charge of the local Y.M.C.A. performances of this nature for several years
and all of them have been very successful. The boys have been faithfully rehearsing for several weeks for the coming entertainment and there is every indication that they will appear to crowded houses.

INDIAN APPOINTED.

Jose D. Ortiz, an Indian, formerly of Shawnee, Okla., will serve the position of head of the department for who has resigned to go to Scotland to take up ranching. W. R. Chipley, the printer of the Indian school, has also resigned and goes to Los Angeles to enter missionary work.

Runaways from Los Angeles.

ing-House and Former Is Sent to the Detention Home.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 30.—
Eliel Morrey, aged 15, and Joseph Hercules, aged 13, were taken in tow
by Police Sergeant Kahn today, charged with being runaways from Los Angeles. They were found in a rooming-house, where they have been residing since Sunday. It is claimed that the two boys were taken in tow March 17. The girl is now in the Detention Home, while her companion is being held for contributing to her delinquency.

JUDGE CAUSTIC
IN HIS COMMENT.

Women Indulge in Fight
Over an Estate.

Desperate One Makes Charge
She Cannot Sustain.

Court in Passing on Petition Talks Plainly.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 30.—
Judge B. F. Bledsoe was caustic in his remarks today referring to the petition and testimony of Mrs. Mary Smith McConnell of Upland, in a reality tangle. Her sister-in-law, Mrs.
Emma J. Diamond, had been appointed administratrix of the late George H. Stover estate, Stover having been her husband. Mrs. Diamond, an administratrix, took possession of the Stover premises. Mrs. McConnell out-ed her.
Mrs. Diamond brought suit to recover possession of the premises, and Mrs. McConnell filed a petition with the Superior Court, in which she charged on information and belief that Mrs. Diamond had procured her position as administratrix through fraud,
having falsely represented herself as the widow of the deceased, and that no marriage license had been issued to them.
It was this scandalous charge which brought forth the court's caustic remark. It had been proved that Mrs. Dimond and Stover had not only been legally married, but had lived at the home of the petitioner as man and wife. The court declared that he would not believe the testimony of a person who would thus seek without grounds not only to blacken the memory of the dead, but cast a shadow
upon the reputation of the living.

DIED ON DESERT.

W. W. Curtis of No. 26 North Seventeenth street, Portland, Or., after a search of almost four years for his father, has learned that the latter died suddenly on the desert, four miles north of Daguerre, in June 1907. This discovery was made through an endless letter chain, sent out by the son as a last resort. Curtis was P. Fuller today received a letter from the son, asking full particulars, and especially information as to the old man's effects, the son being anxious to recover the family Bible and family records, which the father seems to have had with him. Curtis was 32 years old, and was found dead.

PAID FANCY PRICE.

The Megginson ranch, located two miles east of this city, on the Highland car line, at Sixth street and Sterling avenue, was bought today by
H. Ford of Redlands for $45,000. F.
Megginson takes as payment a business block on East State street, Redlands. The ranch includes ninety acres of alfalfa. The ranch, with twenty acres adjoining it, owned by William Megginson, was offered to the county recently for hospital purposes
for $45,000, of which $40,000 represented
the price placed on the Megginson property and $5,000 on the McKenize
property.

HEAD CRUSHED.

Ray C. Clark of Beloit, Wis., 31 years old, was killed yesterday by a Salt Lake train at mile east of Ontario. Coroner Fuller brought the news here today. Clark had evidently been gone to sleep on the right of way with his head on the rail or under a wheel
at that position. His head was crushed to a pulp by the wheels of the train.
His mother, residing at Beloit, was notified by wire and telegraph that she would have at once for Ontario
to take charge of her boy's remains.

DESERTER ARRESTED.

Charles Bonnell, who deserted from the Twenty-eighth Infantry at Angel Island, last January, was arrested late last night. When searched a revolver was found. He pleaded for his return, declaring he wished to kill himself. During the night, Leo McNott, a fellow-prisoner, called for help, declaring Bonnell had tried to knife him.
Bonnell was again searched and an ugly knife found.

EXCEPTS TO DETAIL.

J. J. Naughton, the bridge carpenter who was injured last week while at work for the city on a bridge, de-murs to the charge that he saved a timber in two while sinking on the off end, and was precipitated to the creek bed. According to his explanation, a timber struck him on the head. His claim for $5, which he set in against the city, will be paid in full. The City Council holding that he was in no wise to blame for his unfortunate mishap.

BOLD ROBBER
IS SENTENCED.

JAPANESE BANDIT GIVEN FIVE YEARS AT FOLOSOM.
Robbed Three Laborers Armed Only With a Pocket Knife But When He Tried to Repeat the Performance He Was Rushed and Tied—Investigate Perjury Charge.

SANTA ANA, March 30.—Kakutaro Yoneda, Japanese robber, today was sentenced to five years at Folsom.
Yoneda is said by his countrymen to be a bad man, even among bad Japanese. A short time ago he drew a knife on three laborers near Talbert and took $30 from them. He went to another camp and tried to repeat the trick.
Several Japanese rushed him, overpowered him, tied his hands and feet
and threw him on a bed, where he bled
for hours before the Japanese thought their personal revenge was satisfied.
Then they turned him over to the police.

PERJURY CHARGE.

A Mexican woman was at the Courthouse today, looking up the record of the marriage of her son, Uvando Caro.
She said that Caro is in jail in Los Angeles charged with abducting the girl, Jennie Rodriguez, to whom he was married here on March 25. He gave his age here as 21 and that of the girl
as 18. It appears that she is but 14, and Caro was arrested on the complaint of the father that Caro abducted her.

While Caro committed perjury to get the marriage license, no complaint has been asked for here. The couple were deserted by Justice of the Peace James Fullerton of Orange, the first marriage ceremony he performed since his suspension recently to the township office.

Ventura county grand jury, visited the

that a Courthouse like the one here is about what they need at Ventura.

Angeles; Roy E. Kerfoot, 30, of Cor-

structor of the association. On account

STOMACH MISERY
JUST VANISHES
INDIGESTION, GAS, HEARTBURN
AND DYSPEPSIA GO.

There is Not a Single Reader of The Times Who Suffers From Any Form of Stomach Trouble Who Can Afford to Leave Diapiesin Untried. There is No Other Preparation Which Gives Such Prompt and Lasting Relief.

As there is often someone in your family who suffers from an attack of indigestion or some form of Stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach five minutes after.

For your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin,
then you will readily see why it makes Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieves at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Distress, Constipation and other stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or an out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe there is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake.
Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which purely in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poisons the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapiesin.

Europe this year, being absent two months, and hearing much of the fine
music of the continent and British Islands, Miss Marie Rand, pursuing art studies in Pratt Institute, Miss Dorothy Davis, daughter of Mrs.
John W. Davis, will join a party of South College girls in a cruise to the Bermuda Islands during the spring vacation. Marian and Gwen Davis, who are attending Milwaukee-Dowder College, will spend the spring vacation in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Marquis, formerly of Redlands.

NEWS AVERT PANIC IN SCHOOL.

Sisters of Mt. Carmel Convent in New Orleans Lead Frightened Girls
in Safety Out of Big Fire.

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] News in the Mt. Carmel Convent Hospital on Liberty street
this morning when the convent caught fire.
By their example of coolness they led sixty girls pupils unharmed to the streets.

Fire caught in the laundry, which was above the refectory and music room and in a building adjoining the dormitory. One of the nuns discovered it, and dressing herself quietly, warned
the other twenty-one. The alarm was sounded from a nearby box, then the pupils were ordered to dress. Some of them, seeing the red glow and hearing
the crackling of the blaze were terrified and wanted to run out clad in their night clothes. They were restrained and quieted and all made their way to the street.

The fire did not entirely destroy the convent, the older buildings of which were erected 127 years ago and have been used by the present order for eighty-seven years.

Helpful Hints on Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally
Caused by Carelessness

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be,
these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp.
It is far easier to catch hair microbes
than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness.
Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hatband is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "32" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles,
and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "32" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation
of blood, which nourishes the hair follicles, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp
to know that Rexall "32" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair
dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be complicated with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature gray-ness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle,
or is sent direct by the manufacturers
upon receipt of price.

BY CAPT. LESLIE T. PEACOCK

"Pay as you enter," oh, dear, what a saying! They are making! And gals know it is useless to argue, to fume or to pout. For conductors are most authoritative of all the contraptions that man can devise.

To annoy the long-suffering passenger, his "pay-as-you-enter" contrived for him is conducive to language improvement.

Through the mud or the dust you pass the car. Forgetting the new regulation: When the motorman gives you the "Ha! Ha!"

And the passengers raise an outcry and run to the rear and you make a spring.

The conductor yells, "Where is the money?"

Oh, it's funny, it's funny, quite funny you're a smoker you rush to the front (The back is reserved for the smoker.)

For a seat that is empty in vain do you sit. They are filled up with maidens and boys.

When you hang by a strap and swing across a fool.

Who invented this fell innovation, that envy the motorman pointed on his head. All the way to your own destination.

Then you want to get off you pull at the strap.

And terrible words do you utter; then a jerk it flies open and out it goes. You land with a bump in the gutter.

You pick yourself up, all bruised and sore, and swear at the fellow invention.

And the very next morning you're in the car.

every smooth running motor, such as the Chalmers, there are many thorough tests of efficiency.
Chalmers motor comes from the Assembling Department. It is tested for accuracy under electric power.
must be perfectly assembled, the whole running

this comes the most important test of all. The components are then run under their own power in the Block Department. Here 52 motors may be tested simultaneously. At varying speeds, from 800 to 1200 revolutions, motor is run 24 hours to determine to the last degree of that every part works smoothly and silently.

this the motor is hitched to a dynamometer fan, a which makes the engine carry a load equivalent to a touring car with its full number of passengers. Under this strain the motor runs an equivalent of 300 miles.

each motor which passes the test is made to develop its horse power under load.

Chalmers motor which does not work perfectly under all these tests is rejected and goes back to the Assembling Department.
The motor which passes the test are assembled in cars and sent out for a 200 mile test in actual service.

All of this explains why Chalmers motors work smoothly and silently and develop their full rating of power.

BY GREY OLIVER.

Portland, 9: Los Angeles, 1.
Some bush pitchers have an idea that if you can't beat a lot of ball players
by flinging the ball in front of them,
you might have a chance if you try to knock their heads off.

Young Mister Coleman, a reformed street car man whom Dillon has coaxed away from a promising career to perform on probation as a pitcher for the Los Angeles team, evidently is one of these thinkers, and many of the fans thought he was trying yesterday to work out his system of speculative philosophy on the Portland team.

It is a sad commentary on the noted hospitality of Los Angeles to realize that a company of strange tourists
cannot come to this town without having some street-car man get out in the middle of a vacant lot and endeavor to knock their heads off with a baseball.

It seems to be true, however, and this is one of the reasons why the Beavers
had no trouble in galloping by the post
an easy winner in the third game of the season. When Mister Coleman was not bouncing the ball off the trembling bodies of the visitors they were hoping it along the distant grass just where some one wasn't. At other times they cavorted down the waiting pathways because Coleman was so wild that he could not sling it close enough to them so they could hit it a mile.

On the other hand, Heaver Fullerton, from Fall River, Mass., wherever that is, pitched such good ball that every time any of the locals hit it they wanted to rush to the telephone and call up a brass band works and have a lot of tunes played to celebrate the event.

And every swat was really an event.
At that Fullerton kid is a spit-ball fiend. All he does is to slobber on the ball and throw it at you. If you hit it you ought to consider yourself as lucky as John D. Rockefeller. And you are, too.

Dillon says the kid hasn't got anything. Dillon ought to know, for he is the captain of the local team, and whatever he says is official. And yet
if I had as much as Fullerton hit it writing about ball players and go to pitching at them. Furthermore, if Dilton had been able to even land on what Fullerton didn't have he might have made a base hit.

At that Fullerton soaked two men
with the ball and walked five to first.
But three singles were made off him
and these were so far apart that you had forgotten about one before the next one arrived. Only four flies went to the outfield and Ryan and Krueger ate these alive without any salt on the tails.

The locals did manage to get a run,
however. Dillon was the first up in the fourth and was soaked with the ball. He ran to second on Delmas's out and scored when Hughes Smith managed after a desperate work to pop a Texas leaguer just over the line into right field where no one could get it.

Only one other man got to third base and this was Delmas. He hit a home run in the fifth. He has gone to French Lick Springs for medical treatment.
Having failed to respond to the treatment given by Trainer Tutthill, it is expected he will join the team again
some time in its four days' stay in Indianapolis.

Tutthill thinks Cobb's illness was brought on by too strenuous efforts to
get into condition after joining the squad two weeks late.

Tom Williams looks well at the
wheel of that handsome Peerless town
car. It is a beauty and Tom had a long drive about town yesterday.

HOGAN ON THE CARPET BEFORE JUDGE GRAHAM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As the result of the Vernon players' troubles with Umpire Finney, Manager Hogan was put on the carpet for half an hour today by President Graham of the Coast League, and the riot act was read to him.

President Graham told Hogan in no uncertain terms that the aggressiveness against the umpire must be eliminated, and he assured Hogan that the umpire was the boss of the field and would be backed up by the league.

The talking evidently did Hogan a world of good, for Finney went through the game at Oakland today without a kick being raised.

"President Graham explained to me that it was doing the same no good," said Hogan, "and I guess he was right to some extent. He did not like the aggressiveness of my men toward the umpire, but I explained to him that we were out to win. I am an aggressive player myself and I have my men play the same sort of game, for that is the way to win. We promised to behave, however, and all we asked for was a fair deal."

A. V. Duncan in Action.

He, with Nat Brown, will make up the tennis team which is likely to give Bundy and McLoughlin a close run in the tryout at Long Beach
July 1-4, to decide the Coast representatives at the national championships.

TY COBB IS ILL.
LOUISVILLE, March 30.—"Ty" Cobb left the Detroit American team yesterday quite ill. He has gone to French Lick Springs for medical treatment.
Having failed to respond to the treatment given by Trainer Tutthill, it is
Indianapolis.

Tutthill thinks Cobb's illness was
brought on by too strenuous efforts to
get into condition after joining the
squad two weeks late.

wheel of that handsome Peerless town
car. It is a beauty and Tom had a

ALL INDICATIONS POINT TO WOLGAST AS VICTOR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Anton La Grave, San Francisco lightweight, will have a chance tomorrow night at the Auditorium Rink to test his powers against Ad Wolgast, champion of the world. Betting shows Wolgast money going begging at odds of 10 to 4, and public opinion does not figure the Butchertown man as having a chance.

That outside chance, however, that is always a part of the fistic game,
together with an opportunity to see a real champion in action, is a sufficient drawing card, and if the advance
sale is a good criterion, Promoter Clark
will have a well-filled house.

The interest, naturally enough, centers upon Wolgast more than upon the local man. The Cadillac man has been variously received in different parts of the country until it has come about
that San Francisco people want to
see for themselves just how worthy he
is of holding the title that he took
away from Battling Nelson in the Richmond arena a year ago last February.

Wolgast's training has not been of any great length, but since he was in condition for Memic and has no weight worries, it was unnecessary for him to go through any extended course of training. While he looks closely drawn about the face, he is evidently in good condition and can have no excuse
of the country until it has come about
that San Francisco people want to
is of holding the title that he took
away from Battling Nelson in the Richmond arena a year ago last February.

hard to see the light of his matches, to forecast him as a lightweight champion.

Los Angeles High School
track athletes are to travel in velvet when they go to the in-terscholastic invitation conference meet at Stanford April 8.
Ed Doherty, one of the students,
is to take them North in a special car as his guests. The party will include seven of the crack hill-top runners who are entered for the meet, and a number of friends.

It is strictly a stag affair.
The athletes have not secured
the sanction of the local school board, but are confident they will be allowed to compete. The chances are good for a Los Angeles victory.

WILCOX BEATS BARNEY'S MARK.

Stock Car Record Lowered
by the National.

Speedsters Flash Over Hard White Beach Sands.

Blitzen Benz Ready for Fast Trials Today.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.) March 30.—
Two new world's records were made at the Atlantic-Pacific Beach automobile race meeting today.

Driving his Buick Bug in the 20-mile free-for-all, Bob Burman went the distance in 13 min. 11.92 sec., or at the rate of 91.06 miles an hour.

The previous record for more than ten miles was made by Lancia in a Flat at Daytona, when he covered fifteen miles at the rate of ninety miles an hour on the straightaway.

Burman's course included two turns,
which lowered his record greatly.

Howard Wilcox sent the big National stock car across the mile distance in 40.5 sec., establishing a new world's record for stock cars and lowering the mark of 40.35 sec. made by Barney Oldfield. The five-mile stock chassis event for cars from 351 to 450 cubic inches piston displacement was another victory that added to his laurels. His time of 3:56.82 is faster than ever was driven by a car of that class before.

Bolivia Burman, driving the "Blitzen Benz," captured the $1000 cash prize offered for the fastest mile, going the distance in 30.25 sec. over a rough beach.

A ten-mile race for cars under 400 cubic inches piston displacement kept the spectators on their feet during the last two miles of the event. Dis-brow, in the Pope-Hartford, was the winner, with Wilcox in the National a close second.

WHOLESALE MARATHON.

More Than Four Hundred Boys Competed in Philadelphia Long-Distance Races.

The greatest modified Marathon ever run in the United States was held at Philadelphia last Saturday, when 400
schoolboys faced the steepest at Villa-nova for the fourteen-mile drill into Philadelphia. Of this number, 224 finished and all were in splendid shape.

John J. Gallagher of Brown Prep-atory School won in 1hr. 18m. 10.2-sec., breaking his own record for the course,
which he made when he won the classic
event last year in 1hr. 17m. 39.4-sec.

This is the third annual modified Marathon run under the auspices of the Philadelphia Press and it was far more successful than the two preceding ones. It is estimated that 40,000 persons lined the course, nearly all of which was roped off, to cheer the runners.

Travis Defeated.

PINEHURST (N. C.) March 30.—
Chas. Evans, Jr., of Edgewater, defeated Walter J. Travis of Garden City at the sixteenth green in their golf match today. Interest in the contest was unprecedented here, a gallery of fully 500 following the play-throughout. National Champion Fownes won a close match from T. S.
Robeson of Rochester by 1 up.

EASTERN GOLFERS DEPARTS.

E. R. Williams, one of Annandale's best golfers, has ended his winter visit in Southern California and returned to play on his home links at Lake

HARD BEATING FOR VILLAGERS.

Seals Hammer Pitchers in Lively Fashion.

Carlisle Starts Trouble by Muffing Long Fly.

Stewart and Castleton Hit the Bumps Hard.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Seals used their war clubs to good advantage against the Vernon's Villagers today, beating them 5 to 1.

Vernon took its beating without a murmur of protest, too. There was no trying to bulldoze the umpire, as was in evidence on the two previous days, and it was quite evident that the teaming which Commander-in-Chief Hapgood Hogg had received from President Graham had the effect of bringing the Vernon tribe to understand that they put on their uniforms to play the game on the diamond and not in the grand stand.

The Seals got busy and the first rattle out of the box Powell slammed a long fly to center which Carlisle muffed. That miscue placed Watt on second and he moved up a peg when Brown let a pitch get by him. McCardle walked and Melchior batted in the first run with a clean single to right. Tennant fanned but Lewis walked for a walk which filled the bases. Vito was on deck with a timely single and McCardle scored. Mel tried to come in himself but was put out at the plate on Carlisle's perfect pop from center.

In the second Schmidt led off with a single and hurried to second on Miller's sacrifice. Hogg failed to handle Powell's sweet answell stole second a moment later. Brown failed to hold another one of Stewart's curves and Schmidt raced home from third on the passed ball.

In the fourth, the Seals shoved another run across the pan. Happy Hogan got his only real chance in the fifth inning to start something and then he was promptly quieted by a lightning fast double play. Brown was hit by Miller and Stewart was passed on four bad ones. Carlisle singled and loaded the bases. Burrell banged one to Mohler, which the Kid engineered into a pretty double play. Mohler to Vito to Tennant. Brown scored on the play but the fast work took the life out of the southern tribe.

The soft music, cut flowers and all the trimmings were furnished for the Vernonites in the Seals' half of the fifth. McCardle began by beating out an infield tap to third. Melchior was safe on Stewart's error on his difficult grounder and both runners were advanced when Stewart cut loose a wild pitch. Tennant walked, which resulted in the chasing of Stewart to the club house.

South-wheeler Castleton, the cast-off Los Angeles hurler, came upon the scene with a perfect pose but it failed to fill the bill, for Weaver was substituted to bat for Lewis and then the trouble started. Weaver settled down to work in a hurry with a hard drive to short, which scored both McCardle and Melchior. Vito walked, which filled the bases again.

Mohler hit into a double play, Patterson to Brown to Brashers, and Weaver carried through a heady bit of work by scoring from second in the play. Schmidt made his third hit and Vito rapped home for the fourth run of the inning. That closed the run getting for the day.

BASEBALL CHIPS OFF THE DIAMOND.

HENRY BERRY DROPS THREE YOUNG PITCHERS

Boys Cannot Please Dillon After a Fair Trial—McCredie Says He Will Not Release Second Baseman Ball. Umpire Lane Now Holds Job As Clothing Salesman.

Manager Henry Berry of the Los Angeles team has chopped off the heads of Pitches Crips, Lockhart and Conannon and they have been dropped from the team. All of them showed something, but not enough to suit Dillon. Couchman is due from Pittsburgh this week. Teck will probably get his when Bernard returns to the game.

Danny Long of the San Francisco team has cannot five pitchers in Anna Griffin, Coleman, Buckingham and Ehrenfort. He gave them a chance to show what they could do and they did not make good.

McCredie has not heard from Ball, his prospective second baseman. The fellow may show up, however. Mac was offered $3000 for Ball by the Baltimore club and refused to take it and said yesterday that if Ball did not play with Portland he would not play with any team this season. Evidently Neal does not know McCredie. If he is worth $3000 to Baltimore, he is that good to Portland.

A northern paper makes the broad statement that the outfield is the strongest part of the Portland team. What's the matter with the catchers, pitchers and infielders?

McCredie states that having used a one-hit pitcher on Tuesday and a three-hit one yesterday, he will vary the programme today by using one who can have a two-hit game.

Toner was out on the ball field yesterday in uniform and hopes that he will be able to work in about two weeks.

Charley Reilly, former third baseman for the Los Angeles club, will go to the game occasionally. A few months ago he paid as much for a house out in the southwest section as many ball players receive as salary in three years. It pays you to get out of it, sometimes.

Gotch is to arrive in California Monday and will take part in bouts at Stockton, Fresno and probably Fresno before coming south. Then he will pass right through Los Angeles and appear at San Diego, before coming here.

Jim Jeffries is planning on giving the big wrestling champion a hearty reception when he arrives in Los Angeles. Frank was the big beller maker's side partner in the farewell tour that Jeff made before he went into training for Johnson.

Gotch's appearance in Los Angeles, will be in nature of a farewell showing as the big fellow will probably quit after his bout with Hackenschmidt. Gotch has plenty of the world's goods stored away for a rainy day and owns enough farm land to start a State of his own.

In Humboldt, Gotch's name is as popular as the President's and no matter how long the big fellow remains away he is always welcomed back home by a delegation of husky farmers.

Gotch's world is as good as gold in Iowa and no one ever questions a claim in which he takes part. Frank prides himself on this fact and there is no one thing he boasts of with more pleasure than that he has never done a thing in the mat game, which the folks at home didn't approve of.

Westgard, may have little chance in his over Gotch, but the wrestling fans are sure to see some real sport when the two meet.

LOW SCORE AT HARVARD.

Boy Marksmen Make Poor Showing Against Philadelphia Manual School, But Are Confident of Victory.

Harvard School shooters took a slump Tuesday, when a ten-man team only scored 174 points against the Central Manual Training School of Philadelphia in a practice shoot.

This is one of the poorest scores made by the local boys during the present season. They are confident of victory in spite of the poor showing, however, as the Philadelphia lads have not scored over 1700 in any previous meet.

Ernest Williams, the youngest boy on the team, came through with high mark. He made a total of 183. Wintner, who is one of the best Harvard marksmen, had an off day, only making 177 points. The results of the easterners' shooting have not been received as yet.

The individual scores: Williams 183, Douglas 181, Hansen 178, Wintner 177, Hanscom 177, Cope 175, Wetzel 176, Hagan 166, Denholm 165.

Favor Sunday Ball.

LINCOLN (Neb.) March 30.—By a vote of 14 to 4, the Nebraska Assembly today passed the Senate bill providing for the playing of Sunday baseball in such communities as to whether some doubt is expressed as to whether Gov. Aldrich will sign the measure.

White Sox Win One.

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) March 30.—The Chicago Americans first team shut out St. Joseph today, 8 to 4. Batteries, Baker and Sullivan; Chellette and Coe.

MISS MOULTON WINS.

SAN DIEGO, March 30.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) In the Coronado Country Women's Golf Club, Miss Emily Moulton of St. Paul, Minn., won from Mrs. M. Turnbull, 2 up, 1 to play. Mrs. E. O. Hodge of San Diego won from Mrs. J. V. Elliot of Pasadena, 5 up, 2 to play.

EVERS QUITS BUSINESS.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Johnny Evers, second baseman for the Chicago Nationals, has sold his Chicago shoe store and has decided to devote all his time in aiding his team to win championships. "Bustica worries, interfere with baseball playing," said Evers, in explanation.

TOE-HOLD MAY NOT BE USED.

Gotch to Drop Deadly Grip in Coming Bout.

Champion to Arrive in California Next Week.

Jim Jeffries to Help Entertain Old Side Partner.

The toe-hold which has made Frank Gotch the champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, the most feared man on the mat today, may be barred from the bout at Naud Junction, April 7, when the grappling king meets Jess Westgard of Des Moines, Iowa.

When these two men met before Gotch used his terrible hold with telling effect on Westgard's legs and an effort will be made to have it barred in the coming bout. Gotch will make no strenuous objection, however, as he is better supplied with holds than any other man in the grappling sport today.

Gotch is to arrive in California Monday and will take part in bouts at Stockton, Fresno and probably Fresno before coming south. Then he will pass right through Los Angeles and appear at San Diego, before coming here.

Jim Jeffries is planning on giving the big wrestling champion a hearty reception when he arrives in Los Angeles. Frank was the big beller maker's side partner in the farewell tour that Jeff made before he went into training for Johnson.

TOE-HOLD MAY NOT BE USED.

Jim Jeffries to Help Entertain Old Side Partner.

The toe-hold which has made Frank Gotch the champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, the most feared man on the mat today, may be barred from the bout at Naud Junction, April 7, when the grappling king meets Jess Westgard of Des Moines, Iowa.

When these two men met before Gotch used his terrible hold with telling effect on Westgard's legs and an effort will be made to have it barred in the coming bout. Gotch will make no strenuous objection, however, as he is better supplied with holds than any other man in the grappling sport today.

Gotch is to arrive in California Monday and will take part in bouts at Stockton, Fresno and probably Fresno before coming south. Then he will pass right through Los Angeles and appear at San Diego, before coming here.

Jim Jeffries is planning on giving the big wrestling champion a hearty reception when he arrives in Los Angeles. Frank was the big beller maker's side partner in the farewell tour that Jeff made before he went into training for Johnson.

Gotch's appearance in Los Angeles, will be in nature of a farewell showing as the big fellow will probably quit after his bout with Hackenschmidt. Gotch has plenty of the world's goods stored away for a rainy day and owns enough farm land to start a State of his own.

FRESH STAGE DOOR JOHNNY.

Intellectuals in Hot Pursuit of Fra Elbertus.

Birdie Millman's Interesting Story Kneezed Pan.

Vincent Man Goes in for Aviation Stunts.

BY THE "JOHNNY."

There has developed a new style of stage door Johnny at the Orpheum, and big Bill Bremer, the red-eyed keeper of the portal, is adding a new set of troubles to wrinkle his classic brow.

And saintly Bird Millman, the carefully-guarded, is not drawing them, either.

No—the new style Johnny has no use for Bird and her abbreviated hints—it is a high-brow set, and wants only the etherialized aesthetics of Fra Elbertus.

"These new ginks got my goat," declared Bill, as he relighted his pompous calabash, after turning down coldly and firmly a dignified old lady with spit curls adorning her forehead.

"They all want to see Hubbard, who isn't no great shakes of an Apollo, however he is—anyhow."

"They're all long-haired men or short-haired women, and none of the names I'll ever see 40 again, and none of the men has ever seen 30 yet."

"The men haven't got no beards—not enough chin to raise a decent crop of Phila. on. But they got eyes like a x-ray, and they roll 'em up sort of soulful—oh, goah! They stand on the fact and gurgles, and I feel like a tin 'em in the place their brains ought to be."

"But the women is the worst. One opened old skirt with a frassled ring and a reticule, wanted to invite me to a Feast of the Soul communion, and when I told her he didn't drink she said it wasn't a physical draught, or one that would quench the fires of hell."

"What d'ye know about that? With me, only 5 per."

"I bet there's been about seventy of 'em culturing maidens here, othering me this week, and no less than three dozen alleged men, all wantin' to talk to the Fra."

"Say, he don't want to see them, does he? The Fra is a decent fellow, but a—does need a hair cut. He never picked a bit when I smoked in his room."

"But this new style Johnny and Birdie is got my goat. I'd rather give a good kick in the pants to the old girl-huntin' sort. You get some satisfaction out of 'em."

If you want a delightful thrill, and get back to the Orpheum stage door—over the wire, ask the fair damsel if she has recovered from her recent accident.

Then, she'll thrust her belighted up on a chair, show you the stretch from calf to well, she's on knees that are very high-water, and her even raises 'em to—show you the d'flected my knee a few weeks ago. Bird will murmur, in her dulcet voice, "and it is still weak. Look."

You look. She indicates the stretch of underpinning.

"You see, I have it in a bandage."

Then she shows you again. It's well proportioned, and the pink lights fit like another skin.

"Just feel that."

It's good, solid flesh, gracefully arched in line, and the rubber bandage makes very little difference in its perfect contour.

And it isn't a case of "the higher, the better," either.

There's nothing immodest in Bird's explanatory action. Her legs are to be merely a part of her anatomy.

Low Dockstadter is a strong booster for the future of the aeroplane, and there is no limit to the practicality of the sky-skimmers if the minstrel's announced plans are to be taken seriously.

When Low first broke into the show business he was a member of a "wagon show" troupe and was transported with the other actors, members of the show, from village to village by mule and horse power of the most elementary type. Then came railroad jumps in day coaches and later the luxuries of a private car. When the automobile came into vogue, Dockstadter made most of his jumps in the East and Central West for two seasons in a high-powered modern car of jigger-saut.

And now it is to be the aeroplane. Low insists he will make a flight with Aviator, Charlie Walsh, before he leaves Los Angeles, just to get an idea of the sensations. As soon as the season closes Dockstadter is to spend a lot of time with constructors of aerodynamic machines. Here is his plan, authentic, because told by himself yesterday afternoon at the ball game.

"I have always strived to be in front of the procession and it is the ideal route for transporting my troupe and scenery just as soon as the building of air craft can turn out the proper machines. First will be the scenery and "props" aeroplane, with sleeping compartments for the working crew. This plane will leave immediately after the show is loaded and will land on the roof of the next theater we are in play. The scenery plot will call for a landing stage on the roof with openings to dump the stuff through."

"Then will follow the palace sleeping and smoking plane, with compartments for the members of the company, with private baths, barber shop, billiard and pool tables and—excepting in flying over Maine, Mississippi, Georgia and Kansas—a buffet."

"The third of the fleet will be the cooking and dining plane. This important portion of the outfit will travel behind the living plane on account of the odors of cooking, but it will be anchored to the living plane by a long cable so there will be no repetition of the 'pig-car' missed connection—you can get a sandwich a hundred miles further on 'feature we encounter so often these days on our most respectable highways."

"When meal time comes, the dining plane will put on a little more speed and fly close to the living plane, and may hitched until the meal is over."

"We will fly several hundred feet above the ground, and will be able to banners and signs without violating Los Angeles parade ordinances."

"Five strikes? He's out! I have to finish this story after we are getting robbed by"

Mary the Great

The incomparable Garden, who, never having been seen in the West, will probably make her Coast debut in Los Angeles in about thirty days. All things considered, Mary Garden is the most famous young woman of the stage in the world, and at all odds the most famous living opera singer. Her sensational beauty, her colossal dramatic art and her extraordinary intellect would seem to make her a woman of the ages.

Florence Reed, the new leading woman at the Belasco, requires the services of two feminine valet de chambers to keep the endless mules of chiffon and lace trimmings of her various gowns from becoming wrinkled. It is said on excellent "info" that she has bought an even ten trunks full of gowns from New York, and unless the Belasco burns down in the meantime, she will wear each and every one before her four weeks' contract is up.

CHESS SCORES.

Today is the last of play in the king's side gambit tournament of the Chess and Checker Club of Southern California, in which eighteen games are scheduled for decision before midnight. Pierce is established in first place with a total of 47 games won and two to play. Holt finished with a total of 42 games won, and is secure in second place unless Peterson, who has scored 3 1/2 wins, can pass him in playing his remaining eight games.

Barnett closed his list by defeating Peterson in both games, making his total 39 1/2 points for the tourney, which is practically certain to give him fifth place. Gilbert is secure in at least fourth place with 40 1/2 points, his position depending upon Peterson's final record.

Darling completed his games with a total of 22 wins and 22 losses, thus dropping into the 50 per cent. class at the last moment. Perry ended with 16 1/2 points to his credit, a creditable showing for a young player in such a contest.

The last round resulted as follows: Ruth 2, Perry 0, Allgaier and king's knight's gambit; Barnett 2, Peterson 0, Salvor; Hanna 1, Perry 0, knight; Peterson 1, Fletcher 1, knight; Peterson 2, McMurray 0, knight; Struve 1, McMurray 1, knight; Pierce 2, Darling 0, Vienna.

Players who will participate in today's contests are Bates, Blundin, Fletcher, Hanna, Lee, McMurray, Peterson, Pierce, Ruth, Stockinger and Struve.

CLASH ON RACING.

Business Men of Florida City Say They Intend to Stop Events on Pensacola Track.

PENSACOLA (Fla.) March 30.—Active preparations are being made to open the fifteen-day race meet here tomorrow, notwithstanding the decision of the Pensacola Commercial Association to take legal steps to prevent it. Secretary J. F. Pons of the Southern Club, in a telegram received today, says the proposed meet has not been sanctioned by that organization. The reasons given are that the promoters are not recognized and have not asked the sanction of the Southern Jockey Club.

FIFTEEN-DAY MEET.

PENSACOLA (Fla.) March 30.—Everything is in readiness for the fifteen-day racing meet which will open here tomorrow afternoon at Kupfrian Park. About 250 horses are now in the park stables. According to the promoters the announcement today by the Southern Jockey Club that it had not sanctioned the meet here is not causing any worry. It is intended, they assert, to run the meeting entirely within the law, their attorneys holding that racing with the betting adjunct is legal in this State until May 1.

CHANCE FOR COULON.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Exclusive Dispatch. According to plans announced today by Howard Carr, manager for Harry Forbes, and "Pop" Coulon, father and manager of Johnny Coulon, both of the bantams, will probably go to England this summer to mix it with "Digger Stanley" in London.

When Coulon beat Conley in New Orleans, Hugh McIntosh cabled from London that he would match Stanley with the champion in England. E. W. Coulon-Forbes match was made McIntosh offered Howard Carr a fight for Forbes if he got as good as a draw in the Coulon fight. Carr thinks that had a decision been given the veteran would have been allowed a draw.

Leonard G. Nattkemper, instructor of the Y.M.C.A. Public Speaking Club, will give a dramatic interpretation of J. Mr. Nattkemper's performance is a very clever impersonator, and he is said to be especially effective in the delineation of the character of King Henry VIII.

CROAKER PICNIC IS ON AGAIN: ANGLERS RESUME AT OLD STAND.

BY EDWIN L. HEDDERLEY.

QUITE the best news that has come up to the city from any of the beach resorts this spring, so far as fishermen are concerned, is the word that the big spotfin croakers again are doing business at the old stand—San Pedro Inner Harbor.

In years past, San Pedro Bay has been the scene of some historic croaker runs, that of 1906, when the big dredger in its October work cut through the clam beds opposite the cannery and ferry landings being still green in the memory of veteran local anglers. Catches of from a dozen to twenty "spotfins" of the largest average size were made every day for over a week, some idea of their weight being gathered from a catch of a dozen and a half which fell to the good-fortune of the writer and averaged seven and one-half pounds, and another even larger catch made by Harry Slotterbeck of about the same size.

The present run is not of such proportions, nor are the fish as big. For six years past, croakers virtually have deserted San Pedro Bay, and not for several years prior were they in anything like the abundance of up to a dozen years ago. Every year there is a brief and spasmodic run of these fine game fish, but usually it is not to be depended upon, for the fish are taken one day and missed the next. Nor have those caught been of the old-time size. Croakers of from twelve to fourteen pounds were never plentiful, but the old timers like Al Sheriff and Sylvian Lars, the "silent partners" of other days, remember them well, and have not forgotten the monopoly of this sport which by dint of close-mouthed secretiveness, they maintained and exercised in undisturbed peace and quiet season after season. These worthies used to bring their fish home on the Salt Lake train in the baggage car in gunnysacks so no one saw them, but like all good things, the facts finally leaked out, and from that day began the decadence of San Pedro as a croaker center. The croaker is among the shyest of fish, and the "splash" or anchor weights and rattling of heels against boat bottoms, together with the bombardment of the otherwise placid surface of the inner bay with half-pound leaded plummet utterly fail to make him feel at home.

Since light-tackle came into general use among anglers, the croakers have been missed sorely. The last big run came just at the inception of the nine-thread, nine-ounce movement, and grave doubts were expressed by the majority of anglers regarding the capability of the tackle when pitted against the lusty croakers. Nowadays the three-four-five tackle which represents something less than a third the inherent power of the nine-thread combination, would be used generally by the experts for cajoling croakers out of the calm waters of the bay to within gaff-shot, and as the tackle has taken fish of up to forty pounds, there is no reason why it should not prove ample. Roy Shaver, the rodmaker, and other members of the Three-Four-Five Club use this tackle for all their bay fishing, and some propose to try it in surfcasting from the beach next summer.

Last Sunday, Shaver and his wife were busy with the "Ronador" which is the boat Shaver built for his own use, and found time to throw a line over the side from the sloop wherein the fish is moored. Mrs. Shaver worried to death a four pound spotfin, and a number of others were seen caught. Ellsworth Saylor got a pair of four-

Middletown, when last seen, had one and were going strong for another. Hodge had a five pounder. Nearly everybody had at least one, but no bid catches were reported. The spotfins were biting a little all along the San Pedro side from the Ferry Landing to the E. K. Wood wharf.

The long blue pile-worms are the best bait obtainable at present, croakers accepting them at face value without the preliminary investigation that they consider necessary when dealing with clam tenderloins. These worms can be purchased in San Pedro near the car station, but most of the anglers take along clams also to be certain of bait. BEAUTY HINT: Wrinkles are the easily legible hieroglyphs of age. They are the "Mene, mene" of approaching ugliness. The only defense, the informed masseuse, you may accomplish by care and patience. First of all, you must have a good complexion which agrees with your particular skin. This is achieved by first cleansing the face and neck thoroughly, then by the use of a good food; next massage, long and patiently. Always upward strokes, without much pressure. For the expenditure of a few minutes you will have an ample reward.

JOINS ANTIS IN VOTES FIGHT.

FORMER DENVER MAN IN THE CAMPAIGN HERE.

Declares His Belief That Woman Suffrage Will Die by Default in Colorado—Use of Ballot at State Capital, He Says, Is Limited Almost Wholly to Women in Politics.

"Woman suffrage as practiced in Colorado has been detrimental to good morals, a social disturbance and a political evil."

That is what L. C. Johnson, recently of Denver and now of Los Angeles, thinks of political equality in Colorado. Johnson is the author of a burlesque story called "The Situation in Colorado" in which Jacob Smith and his wife Maria organize a woman's club and a new party and enjoy a general social and political mix-up. In one of the concluding chapters "Jake" manages to repeat himself as a voter thirteen times in Denver by registering in advance in thirteen different precincts.

Mr. Johnson came to California for a rest, but when he found himself in the midst of another suffrage situation he went straight to the headquarters of the opposition association and offered to do what he could either with his pen or in debate to save California from what he considered such a calamity as the enfranchisement of women.

"I cannot imagine," he said yesterday, "that it would be possible for another State to want to tangle itself up in such a fashion. The horrible example of Colorado should be enough to keep suffrage off the map elsewhere in the country."

"I think woman suffrage will die by default in Colorado. The privilege of women to vote may remain on the statute books of the State, but the law will amount to less and less every year because fewer and fewer women will use it."

"The use of the ballot in Denver now is limited almost wholly to the women in practical politics. The women, and for that matter the men who are interested in politics for revenue only, will always be the first and the last at the polls, but the majority of Colorado women care nothing about their franchise. At first it was a novelty and the women entered the experiment with some enthusiasm."

"In the last six years there has been a notable decrease in the Denver woman voter. Denver is a city in which the population is rapidly increasing and the popular vote rapidly decreasing."

WOMEN'S WORK. WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

Elbert Hubbard spoke before the drama section of the Ebell Club yesterday. The performance was billed to begin at 10:30, but it was an hour later before he made his appearance. In the meantime enough women to about half the auditorium had assembled.

The preliminary business was soon finished, and a bus of conversation filled the room till the curator announced that the secretary would read an article about Julia Marlowe to fill in the time of waiting.

After this conversation was resumed and the hands of the clock crept along to 11:07, when a woman rustled down the aisle and approached the platform, holding a white paper conversation with the curator, who immediately rapped for order to announce that an auto had been sent to bring the wife of East Aurora hither.

Conversation was again interrupted about five minutes later by the entrance of the club secretary who went swiftly down the aisle to the platform as if bearing a telegram.

"He's come" whispered an excited woman.

The curator nodded assent to the secretary and then arose and announced that if Mrs. B. was in the room she was wanted at the telephone at once.

At 11:15 the janitor tipped in at a side door and handed a note to the first woman he came to. She promptly passed it to the platform where the curator after glancing at it, tabled it, and the necks that had been craned forward relaxed and general conversation was resumed.

At 11:30 the curator, with a tired note in her voice, announced that the secretary would again favor them with a reading about a new comedy. Three minutes later she was interrupted by the announcement, "He's come," and the erratic stage marched down the aisle, his Roycroft necktie floating in the breeze.

For three-quarters of an hour he talked about what he considers the great people of the world, going back to the days before Christ. He went out of his way to have a ding at the scriptures and the authenticity of the writings of St. Paul, and expressed great regret that Paul and Plutarch did not meet and that Paul was also denied an acquaintance with Pliny. He paid tribute to his own egotism by telling that he himself had once been clasped as one of the half dozen great men of the earth, tossed a bouquet to the ruffians; said that unmarried women were silly, and unmarried men brutish, threw a sop to Southern California, looked at the clock and sat down.

It is not only in the city, but in the country, that the woman is becoming more and more a factor in the life of the nation. She is no longer a mere appendage to the man, but a co-worker, a partner in the great work of the world. Her influence is felt in every sphere of life, from the home to the highest offices of the state.

Real recreation is a necessity for the modern woman. She must have a place where she can relax, where she can forget her cares and worries for a while. The city offers many opportunities for recreation, from the parks and gardens to the theaters and museums. The country offers a different kind of recreation, a chance to get away from it all and enjoy the simple pleasures of nature.

The preliminary business was soon finished, and a buzz of conversation filled the room till the curator announced that the secretary would read an article about Julia Marlowe to fill in the time of waiting.

After this conversation was resumed, and the hands of the clock crept along to 11:07, when a woman rustled down the aisle and approached the platform, holding a whispered conversation with the curator, who immediately rapped for order to announce that an auto had been sent to bring the sage of East Aurora hither.

Conversation was again interrupted about five minutes later by the entrance of the club secretary who went swiftly down the aisle to the platform as if bearing a telegram.

"He's come," whispered an excited woman.

Woman Who Sold Lot Declines to Accept Money From Negro Who Bought Property From Purchaser.

Because the man who purchased a lot from her sold it to a negro, Mrs.
G. A. Scarborough wants the contract rescinded.

She is the plaintiff in a suit on trial
in the Superior Court, before Judge Church. The defendants are Lewis A.
Butland, who bought from her, and Caleb W. Holden, colored, to whom Butland sold.

It was a contract sale dated August 12, last. The property is lot No. 48, in Block 1, subdivision of Olive View Tract, adjoining her home. The price was $1000.

Mrs. Scarborough refused to accept Holden's payment of the place and brought suit to quiet title, offering to return what had already been paid on the contract. The trial will be resumed tomorrow.

GLOBE-TROTTER HAS HISTORY.
Once Held Concession for Stage Route Between San Diego and Santa Fe in Turbulent Times.

Col. H. P. Woodworth of Washington and several European capitals, is at the Van Nuys. He is accompanied by Attorney Carlos Mayer of Philadelphia and has been looking after riparian interests on the Gila River, Arizona,
which he acquired many years ago.

Col. Woodworth came to Southern California from Washington in 1872, having received the mail concession for a stage route between San Diego and Santa Fe. His line until he had stages running through many parts of previously unopened territory.

"Of the turbulent times during that early period of development in the Southwest, I have little to say," remarked the pioneer. "It has all been told and retold. The wonderful development of the present day was bound to come, and it arrived much sooner than many of us expected."

In addition to his Arizona and Southern California lines, Col. Woodworth operated one of the first stage lines into Yosemite Valley. He retired from active pursuits many years ago, passing the greater portion of the last five years in Europe.

was delivered, Stevens gave her a check for $25, signed M. E. Edwards.
"The check was drawn on the Security Savings Bank, and was returned marked 'No Account,'" Mrs.
Orliff then took the worthless paper
to Stevens, and he gave her $25 in cash.
He informed Mrs. Orliff that the account at the Security Savings Bank was in the name of Mabel E. Edwards, and he had made a mistake in signing
it M. E. Edwards.

Stevens, who was arrested Wednesday in Denver, under the name of Ryon, will be in the County Jail within a week. Detective Louis Duhl has been there for his arrest.

Just what will be done with the three children of the Paxton woman is a question Deputy District Attorney Horton has not solved. They are being cared for by a juvenile society of Denver. There is a possibility that Marian Lynch, who acted as nurse for the Paxton woman in Pasadena, will be sent to Denver by the District Attorney to bring the tots to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Deane informed Horton yesterday that Miss Paxton called upon one of her tenants at No. 124 West Twelfth street, three days after the second dead
had been found, and inquired for her mother, Mrs. Hughes. According to the tenant, Miss Paxton appeared harboring under a great strain.

TALK ON INFIDELITY.
Dr. Crossfield Draws Large Congregation at the Union Evangelistic Service Wednesday Night.

The nine churches and the Y. M. C. A., forming the Immanuel district, are feeling the impress of the meetings held daily and nightly by Dr. Crossfield and P. P. Billhorn. The audience
Wednesday night filled the large auditorium of the First Congregational Church. Great interest was aroused by the announcement that Dr. Crossfield would preach on a subject of consuming interest, "Is the Infidel Intelligent and Sincere in His Infidelity?"

"These were words of Jesus addressed to the Jews a few months before His crucifixion," said Dr. Crossfield. "The question naturally arises.
Why did not these Jews accept Jesus?
They certainly had every possible advantage. They were not ignorant. They had heard Jesus teaching in the Jewish law and were familiar with the prophecies. They must have heard Jesus in His marvelous teachings and seen Him perform the miracles. Jesus explained the reason for their unbelief. They had eyes, but were too blind to see. There is no such incurable blindness as that which will not see."

"There are many today who claim to believe the Bible, but reject Jesus as divine Lord. Benjamin Franklin was among these. But while he claimed belief in God the Father, he acknowledged that the reason he did not believe in Christ was the fact that he had never taken the time to investigate fully the claims of Jesus.

Jesus Christ bears on his face the criteria of reason that must convince the sincere, seeking soul. Jesus Christ has a right to expect us to accept Him
as Lord and Savior. This is emphasized by the following considerations:
It would be contrary to God's nature
to demand faith in Him if He were not worthy of it; it is reasonable because of 290 fulfilled prophecies concerning Him; because of His sinless life, His miracles and His marvelous life.

"But at last every man shall know.
Every doubter will some day be convinced; every infidel will believe, either
now or when it is too late to believe.
Tom Paine, Ingersoll and all their followers who some day bow the knee
to Him whom they have rejected."

After the sermon the invitation was given for expressions of those who wished to begin the Christian life, and many responded. Dr. Crossfield preached yesterday at 2:30 o'clock in the First English Lutheran Church.
At 7:45 o'clock he preached again in the First Congregational Church on "The Jerusalem Tragedy."

the old colors, while Jack MacFarland,
an "old grad," will tell of the passing of the old guard. Lieut. McClure, U.

of military tactics, will speak at the new colors. The formal presentation

"Battles and Leaders of the Civil War"

Written by Participants on Both Sides in the Titanic Conflict. To Be Published Daily in The Times, Beginning Monday, April 3, 1911.

REVIEWING, at this timely period, the mighty events of the Civil War, The Times will offer its readers a unique literary feast, consisting of a daily sketch about "THE WAR FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY!"

These historical sketches will be suitably illustrated, showing some strong climax or interesting phase of the current narrative. Each day will appear a graphic recital of some thrilling event that took place on the same date fifty years ago; and the reader will be transported into the midst of

THE MOST STIRRING EVENTS OF THE WAR

On Sundays a full page, with illustrations, will be devoted to matter that will traverse the war period in a striking way, thus making a complement to the daily sketches and giving the reader a clearer insight into the overmastering historical events of the period.

The daily sketches will be full of action, written by leaders on both sides who actually took part in and witnessed the battles and scenes of which they tell in personal narrative style, and who were selected by prominent editors for their ability to depict events of intensely human, heart-gripping interest. No fiction can equal these vivid war tales of truth.

SLAYER HOPES FOR FREEDOM.

CONFESION OF GUILT CANNOT BE USED IN COURT.

Feeling Against Offender Is Intensely Bitter and Threats of Summary Punishment in Event of Acquittal Are Freely Made—Excited Clerk Gave Uncertain Testimony.

(Special Correspondence of The Times.)
PORTERVILLE, March 30.—Officers who are investigating the murder of J. R. Lamkin, which was committed in this city by Juan Maganya in February, are convinced that the State will have a difficult time to convict the brutal murderer of one of the leading business men of this city, in spite of the fact that there is absolutely no doubt of Maganya's guilt and in spite of the fact that he made a verbal confession the day of his arrest.

All the evidence against Maganya is the fact that he was sold a knife the afternoon of the murder, a knife which was afterward found in a Mexican camp east of this city, and the fact that Maganya, when arrested, had a huge cut on his right hand, which he admitted was made in the struggle which followed when he attacked the merchant.

The clerk who made the sale stated the night of the murder that Maganya was a tall Mexican with a beard and he is in fact a short man with a small mustache. As the confession cannot be used, and as there were no actual witnesses to the crime, the officers believe that before a jury absolutely ignorant of the facts Maganya will have a very good chance of acquittal. If this does transpire, it is highly probable that summary justice will be meted out to the murderer. In spite of the fact that the crime was committed some weeks ago, feeling against Maganya is still very high.

MURDERED.
BULLET HOLE THROUGH BRAIN.

RIDERLESS HORSE WITH BLOOD ON SADDLE INDICATES CRIME.

Man Named Frank Shot From Ambush, His Assassin Being Hidden in a Clump of Trees. With Bullet in Brain Victim Rode Horse Considerable Distance.

FRESNO, March 30.—Terrified by the appearance of a riderless horse, covered with blood, at her ranch home, fifteen miles west of Fresno, a French woman whose name is not known, mounted another horse and rode to the San Joaquin River, a few miles distant, to find the dead body of a man. The woman, with a bullet hole through his brain, the man had started at 8 o'clock this morning from the ranch to bring back a bunch of cattle.

Knowing that a foul murder had been done, the woman quickly called up a deputy sheriff at Kernan. Sheriff McGowan and Coroner Bean, of Fresno, were notified and hastened to the scene. They are now on the track of the murderer, who evidently has made his escape.

Later it was learned the name of the murdered man was Isidor Vidal, better known as Frank. He was shot from ambush, his assassin being 150 yards distant in a clump of trees. For some time the wounded man rode the horse after being shot, then fell over dead.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.

Dates Fixed at Berkeley, Chico and This City by Standing Committee of State Board.

An announcement of interest to teachers who desire to obtain High School certificates has been made by the State Board of Education. Dates have been set for examination of candidates from outside the State, who have satisfied the preliminary requirements.

The notice states that, "in granting these special credentials the State Board of Education, expects the equivalent of the following standard of qualifications: First, four years of High School education; second, four years of college training; and third, a half-year of post-graduate work in an accredited university."

"Usually these credentials are issued upon credentials, affidavits and recommendations; but, when necessary, the State Board will also examine applicants who wish to show their fitness in that way; and the examinations are conducted by a standing committee of the State Board of Education. They have been held April 5, 6, 7, in Berkeley under Dr. Alexis Lange; Chico, under Allison Ware; and in Los Angeles at the State Normal School under Dr. Jesse Millsap."

Normal School Pupils Benefitted by the Experience of Capable Instructors on Educational Topics.

Miss Agnes E. Howe, head of the department of history in the San Jose Normal School, entertainingly addressed the Los Angeles normal students in the assembly hall yesterday morning, on "The Appreciation of One's Opportunities." Miss Howe has been systematically visiting the public schools of the city.

An announcement is made that Miss Maude Andrus, a primary teacher of unusual ability, has been engaged to give a three months' course in primary education before the Senior class at the Normal.

The Teachers' Club will tender a reception to its president, Miss Helen Matthews, at the Gamut Club, tomorrow afternoon. Miss Matthews has recently become assistant to Dr. Everett O. Sheppard, superintendent of the normal training department. She will look after cadet work in the city.

STOLE HARNESS.
Francisco Marquez and Eduardo Calles, yesterday, stole harness belonging to J. C. Cliff, at Bairdstown. Justice Young sent the men to the County Jail for thirty days.

FRANK G. CARPENTER will tell readers of the Times the story of the murder of J. R. Lamkin, which was committed in this city by Juan Maganya in February.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

In a few years, bring enormous returns to the company. And the advantage of using our own money rather than issuing necessary new securities are so manifest as to need no argument."

In his statement to the stockholders of the Mexican Petroleum Company, Dr. Norman Bridg, treasurer of the company, says: "The enclosed advisory letter from P. R. Kellogg and other stockholders, regarding the business and property of the company, explains itself. It is accurate, moderate and conservative in statement, and at a meeting of the board of directors held this day it was found that the members agreed with the advice it contained. The signers of the letter are large stockholders in the company, their holdings, with those of the directors, constituting nearly three-fourths of all its stock."

"It was voted at the meeting that the said letter be printed and a copy mailed to each stockholder as expressing and explaining the reasons why this board does not at this time declare a dividend on its common stock."

ADDING TO THE STAFF.

CONSULTING ENGINEERS.
The Western Engineering Company has concluded arrangements whereby it becomes consulting engineer and financial agent for the North American Petroleum Company, operating in the Kramer-Barstow field. The latter company has already erected ten derricks on ten of its quarter sections of land. The company controls twenty-six quarter sections, and will continue the work till each quarter is the home of a standard derrick, it is announced.

R. C. Andre, general field manager of the North American Petroleum, is also consulting engineer for the Western Engineering Company, and will have charge of its oil lands and refineries department. He was formerly with the Standard Oil Company and has had a varied experience.

Col. William A. Parish, a well-known mining engineer, has recently joined the consulting staff of the Western Engineering Company, and will have charge of its mines examination department.

SALE RUMOR DENIED.

MADE IN NEW YORK.
Denial of the report that the Southern Pacific has sold its majority holdings in the capital stock of the Associated Oil Company has been made in New York. An Associated Press dispatch says:

"Reports that negotiations were pending for the sale of Associated Oil Company, of California, were authoritatively denied today. The Southern Pacific Company, which controls Associated Oil, will sell its holdings if a fair price is offered, but no offer has been made. Associated Oil is primarily a selling company and has had no interest in other companies owned by the Southern Pacific. In best informed circles it was thought unlikely that the Standard Oil Company would take over the Associated."

AMALGAMATED'S WELL.

PROVES UP TERRITORY.

FULLERTON, March 30.—Interest in the recent developments in the Fullerton oil fields still centers around the strike on the Anaheim Union Water Company land three and a half miles east of here by the Amalgamated where off was found at a depth of 250 feet. Various estimates are given but it is not definitely known what they have in a commercial way. Oil was found at a much less depth than in the Gram-Lofthus well a mile and a half west where drilling continued to 400 feet before results were obtained. The well is located in a new field and proves up territory from 400 to 800 acres in extent.

Rigs are being built by the Lofthus people and the Menges Company for two more wells in Brea canyon; and drilling will be commenced within a short time. There is very little free production here, it being practically impossible to find a barrel of uncontracted oil. Most of the companies have sold for years ahead. It is not believed that the Standard is making any overtures to Fullerton producers.

AGENCY'S ANNUAL MEETING.

TO BE HELD AT BAKERSFIELD.

The annual meeting of the members of the Independent Oil Producers' Agency will be held at Bakersfield on Wednesday, April 12, for the election of officers and the transaction of other business. It is not believed there will be any objection worth mentioning to the re-election of those before the ratification of the contract recently made with the Associated Oil Company to take several million barrels of oil at 42½ cents a barrel. There has developed some opposition to this contract.

New Cable in Place.

Stone stringing its new cable the Venice and Kern Realty and Oil Company is making good progress in its well near San Luis Obispo. There is daily a better showing of oil, with increasing gas pressure. The driller expects to strike the main pay sand in a few weeks at the most, and chances are good that it may be found at any moment.

Work in Vallecitos Field.

News from the Vallecitos field is to the effect that troubles caused by the floods of the rainy season are over, and the various companies operating there are again at work, with fresh supplies of fuel oil in the tanks. The Range 14 Oil Company was least affected of any, and has a fine hole with a good showing of light oil. The formation is disclosed by the log of the well continues the same as that in the light oil district of the Coalinga field. It is expected that the main pay sand will be encountered within a few weeks.

New Company Is Formed.

Charles G. Wilcox of Alameda, H. T. Miller and J. A. Hannah of Visalia and S. S. Simon of San Francisco have organized the Visalia-Monterey Oil Company with a capitalization of $100,000. While the company may engage in mining, its principal business will be to produce and refine petroleum.

Standard's Good Well.

The Standard Oil Company's well No. 7 on section 14, 22-22, Midway, which was brought in last week, is now said to be producing more than 400 barrels a day. The drill went into the sand several weeks ago but the well was successfully cased and brought in under perfect control.

A RASH BECOMES MASS OF HUMOR

On Baby's Face, Head and Shoulders. Parents Decided He Could Not be Cured. Cuticura Made His Skin Perfectly Clear.

"Our boy was born in Toronto on Oct. 13, 1900, and when three months old a slight rash appeared on his cheek. What appeared to be a water blister would form. What it broke, matter would run out, starting new blisters. Other parts of his body were affected, but not to such an extent. We did not know what to do for him, and tried almost every advertised remedy without avail. Indeed some of these only added to his suffering and in some cases, the rash became more extensive. Recently almost put the infant into convulsions. The family doctor prescribed for him and told us to keep him in a hospital. He was treated by an out-patient twice a week and he got worse, if anything. We then called in another doctor and in a week the boy was to all appearances cured and the doctor said his work was done. But the very next day it broke out as bad as ever."

"We decided that it could not be cured and must run its course and so we just kept his arms bandaged to his side to prevent him tearing his flesh. We left Toronto and shortly after our arrival in Duluth, the Cuticura Remedies were recommended. We started using them in May, 1900, and soon the cure was complete. Cuticura made his skin perfectly clear and he is entirely free from the skin disease. This has been our return this time. Robert Mann, Father of the Child, May 3, 1910."

SHIP UNLEASHED DASHES TO BAY.

Throng Turns Out for Long Beach Launching.

Big Wave Causes Thrill
Among Spectators.

Ship to Begin Loading in Three Weeks.

LONG BEACH, March 28.—(The Times.)
The Beach Municipal Band playing
"Star Spangled Banner," with the drum notes of every whistle on the beach shrieking triumphantly, with the college-yells of the students of Los Angeles Polytechnic school and the cheer of thousands of spectators who lined the banks of the inner harbor
channel, the big steel steamship Navajo
this morning glided swiftly down the greased ways of the Craig ship plant. She leaped three feet from the slip into the water, and then rode lightly in the water of the bay, a convulsion of bodies followed a thrill to the onlookers.

The launching was successful. Like her sister ship, the Hubbard, Navajo also took her first plunge into the water sideways, scarcely heeling at all.
In fact she went down the ways so fast that she didn't have time to capsize.

THOUSANDS GATHER.
Long before the hour of launching,
thousands of people began assembling
on the western bank of the channel.
Inside the ship plant, in and about the big ship, other hundreds were gathered,
the guests of the Craig and the Chamberlain of Commerce. Among these were the following from Los Angeles: The County Supervisors, Messrs. H. W.
Fridman, Butler, Neill, McCane, and Capt. Manning; John Hunt, County Treasurer; John Loggins of the Interstate Exchange Bank; Lieut. Leeda, United States Engineer; in Los Angeles, E. J. Currie, of the same office; Charles E. Morton, secretary of the County Highway Commission; George
H. Stewart, Los Angeles Councilman; L. N. Hunsicker, attorney for and director of the Craig shipbuilding company; Dr. S. G. Stead-ward, M. S. Hedman, William H. Albert, E. H. Ford, Maynard Gunsul, William M. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. C.
St. Hudson, Mrs. J. M. Hutchinson, Z.
W. Culver, J. E. Culver and F. L. Miller, northern lumbermen who are interested in a proposition to establish a lumberyard here.

The 60 students of Los Angeles Polytechnic High School, who came down
in special cars on the Pacific Electric,
were grouped over on the west bank
and during the wait kept busy with school work.

Every point of vantage in the yards was filled with spectators, while the coast of the channel were dotted with barges, sail boats and row boats all crowded, and which ventured dangerously near the scene of operations.

It was 10:05 o'clock when the last ship was removed and Manager John H. Craig waved his hat. With one swift stroke of axes the ropes releasing the triggers were slashed and the Navajo on her cradle started downward. As she began to leave, pretty Margaret Bixby, grand-daughter of John H. Craig and daughter of George E. Bixby, highway commissioner and vice-president of the Western Navigation Company, swung back the string of ribbons carrying a bottle of champagne and then threw it away from the big boat rising safely upon the water.

RAISING BIG WAVE.
About 100 men, mostly workmen at the plant, were passengers aboard the boat
as she was launched and so rapid was the progress that half a dozen hats
went overboard and some of the men had to grab tightly at the railing to avoid following suit. The plunge of the boat started a big wave through the channel and boats rocked dangerously for several minutes. Up the western bank without warning rolled
a wave twenty feet high causing a hurried scattering of those who were "out in front." One of the Polytechnic boys was washed overboard and caught between a rowboat and a large, and slightly injured, but was quickly rescued by his companions.

H. W. Christensen, aged 20, of Belmont Heights, with a companion, was sitting on a board near the water's edge. They were completely engulfed in the wave and were carried into the channel and went down twice in ten minutes. Mr. Christensen was rescued by his companions and quickly carried to the home of his dad and this Novel Programme Here.

The women of the Highland Park
Ebell Club enjoyed a home talent programme at their session this week,
each participant being a member of the club, and they demonstrated how much real ability there is in their own immediate circle. Mrs. Frank E. Trank, curator of the books and conversation
section, had charge of the programme,
which involved the consideration of several leading novels of the day.

Miss Elizabeth Packard, in her introductory remarks, called attention to the fact that the novel as we know it today with its distinctly dramatic methods, is eight years younger than George Washington. Her particular subject was the work of Robert Lichtens who usually deals less with plot
than with vivid interpretation of the Southland, which he paints in a riot of colors as an artist on his canvas. "The Call of the Blood" and its sequel forms a tremendous study in heredity
and environment. In his latest novel,
just published serially in a magazine,

of the State Board of Health, six druggists were fined by Police Judge Frederickson for violating the law requiring that the percentage of alcohol and presence of certain drugs be declared on the labels of medicine bottles. In all but one case the fines were suspended with warnings that they would be imposed if the offenses are recommended.

J. V. Ake, thirty-seventh and Vernon streets, was the first to appear. Two charges were made against him. He was made to pay $25 for the first and a similar sentence was suspended in the second.

The names of the other druggists,
whose fines of $25 were suspended, are:
F. W. Carline, Fifty-fifth and Central;
Henry J. Martin of the Auditorium
Pharmacy, John Hughes, No. 1281
West Washington street; E. S. Castle,
Ninth and Denver, and The Lang &
Deville Company, No. 325 South Main.

According to Oakley, the samples of medicines which contained drugs did not bear labels making known that they were dispensed before the law
went into effect, but are now amenable to the law.

TOOL THEFTS.

THREE MUST FACE CHARGES.
P. Mendoza, Vincent Luis and A.
Cortez, charged with having broken into the tool-house of the Los Angeles City Water Works and stolen $20 worth of tools, were arrested yesterday morning and will appear in Police Court in answer to charges of burglary today.

The men were arrested in a pawn shop on South Main street while they were attempting to dispose of stolen tools which the police declare were stolen from the city. The tool-house which was broken into is at Le Moynes
and Marcon streets.

His Hearing Postponed.

C. F. Menge, who two weeks ago shot and killed his son when the youngster objected to his collecting a debt
at the point of a rifle, appeared in Police Court for a preliminary examination yesterday morning. On motion of the District Attorney proceedings were postponed until April 14.

He Hastens Away.

Believing that Walter Senhouse, who was arrested February 23 for begging
on South Main street, had served enough time for the offense while awaiting trial, Police Judge Rose ordered his release yesterday. He lost no time in getting out of the courtroom.

City Hall Briefs.

Chief Ely of the Fire Department yesterday appointed four lieutenants and seventeen firemen. The lieutenants are George A. Loebel, Harry Watson, J. H.
Baker and A. H. Hatfield.

The Civil Service Commission yesterday refused to restore James L. Todd to the eligible list for lieutenant in the Fire Department. Todd was to be restored on the condition that he sign the pledge but the commission reported that he had been drinking when he appeared before them for reinstatement.

The meetings of the Fire Commission have been changed from Thursday at 10 o'clock to Monday at the same hour.
The Fire Commission yesterday recommended to the City Council that the fire-escape ordinance be amended to permit to doors in front of fire escape in modern lodging houses the fire escape is on the outside of a room and the door of the room is often locked.

The Board of Public Works yesterday
asked Building Inspector Backus to report on a plan for increasing the revenue from the Pease Block property, which the city acquired as a City Hall
site.

Heart-Rendering.

POOR LITTLE

LEGS CUT OFF BY CAR WHEEL.
SHOCK PROVES FATAL.

Tiny Girl Escapes From Yard and Tumbles Into Street in Front of Trolley—Rattles After Amputation—
But Succumbs to Shock—Wings Hearts of Surgeons.

Although 20-month-old Elizabeth Karafotos of No. 306 North Utah street, whose legs were ground off by a Pacific Electric car at Aliso and Anderson streets Tuesday evening, rallied after amputation at the Receiving Hospital, she succumbed to shock early yesterday morning.

Elizabeth, a pretty bit of a girl, is the daughter of Emanuel Karafotos,
a baggage handler at the warehouse
of the Seaside, Fourth and Main streets. Of Greek parentage, she seemed a tiny statue in white marble
by one of the sculptors of old.

Wrapped in a heavy blanket of neutral tint, the only sign of color about
the child was the bright, brown eyes, looking wonderingly from one to the other of the man about her, so gentle and innocent that hardened surgeons, nurses, police officers and reporters
choked at the sight.

"I don't know whose child it is, but it is a baby," remarked J. M. Hughes
of No. 825 Aliso street, who had
picked up the little victim after the accident and accompanied her to the
hospital in the patrol wagon.

The little girl, scarcely able to toddle,
had been playing in the back yard of her home when her brother, Herman, 3 years old, Mrs. Karafotos was busy with preparations for the evening meal
at about 6 o'clock, when the little boy,
tempted by the odors from the kitchen,
went to his mother, leaving the baby in the yard alone.

"I don't know whose child it is, but
it is a baby," remarked J. M. Hughes
of No. 825 Aliso street, who had
picked up the little victim after the
accident and accompanied her to the
hospital in the patrol wagon.

When Mrs. Pouroul rushed out from her house, near the scene, attracted by the crowd who were about to touch the mangled child, little Elizabeth was lying beside the car wheels, her left leg
ground off at the knee, her right foot cut off above the ankle, hung on by a shred.

Mrs. Pouroul walked on the car with the baby in her arms and a first aid kit was used to dress the wounds.
Mrs. Karafotos and her husband mangled nothing of the accident until after the child had been carried away.
With small command of English, they were compelled to ask a little girl from the neighborhood for assistance in
